- Applicants who did not make the paper selection will be informed via e-mail.
- Applicants, who were successful during the paper selection, will be invited to the selection day via e-mail.
- Over and above the NWU application fees, successful applicants have to pay a selection fee of R250 to the School of Industrial Psychology and Human Resource Management before they will be allowed to continue with the selection process. An additional form will be sent to these applicants with information regarding the selection day, selection process and payment details.
- Only after the selection day, will the final decisions pertaining to admission to the honours degree be made.
