

Mini Colloquium - 4 February 2016
Time: 10:00-13:00      Venue: E3 K138
Time	Student	Qualification	Title
9:45-10:00	Coffee/tea in Credit Guarantee
10:00-10:05	Welcoming – Prof Wilma Viviers
10:05-10:15	D Chizema	MCom Economics	Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) outflows from South African retail firms to Sub-Saharan Africa (SSA)
10:15-10:25	F Scheepers	MCom Economics	Weather trends affecting agricultural productivity and food commodity prices in South Africa
10:25-10:35	H Nel	MCom Economics	Financial Development, Exchange Rate Volatility and Disaggregated Export Flows of Emerging Markets
10:35-10:45	R van Niekerk	MCom Economics	An analysis of seller concentration in the South African manufacturing sector
10:45-10:55	M Groenewald	MCom Economics	Does Economic Freedom relate to Racial Tolerance?
10:55-11:05	I Jenserud	MCom International Trade	The economic implications of oil spillage response services: An African perspective.
11:05-11:15	G Mhonyera	MCom International Trade	A focused approach toward increasing South Africa’s export competitiveness through regional integration into SADC
11:15-11:25	J Mocke	MCom International Trade	Identifying the Sub-National Determinants of Export Diversification: a Case for South African Firms
11:25-11:35	J van Rensburg	MCom International Trade	Analysing the Impact of the New Customs Act on Port Selection in South Africa
11:35-11:45	Break
11:45-12:00	W Chamunorwa	PhD Economics	A Nexus of Exchange rate and interest rates on FDI and its bi directional influences on Economic Growth in South Africa (2000-2017)
12:00-12:15	D Dyason	PhD Economics	Assessing the Economic Impact of a South African University
12:15-12:30	L Ferreira	PhD Economics	Investigating how realising export potential through regional integration can contribute toward economic development in Africa
12:30-12:45	M Cameron	PhD International Trade	Towards regional value chains - combining the DSM (Decision Support Model) and Product Space methods to inform industrial policy for SADC
Guest speakers
12:45-13:00	Prof Tobie Van Dyk	Introduction to M and PhD Writing School (CAPLP: Centre of Academic Literacy and Professional Language Practice)
Light lunch in Credit Guarantee			